Bledsoe, Extortionist, Given Maximum Sentence

Kansas City, Feb. 20.-Robert B Bledece, of Dallas, Texas., who on Tuesday last entered the home of Lawrence M. Jones, a millionaire mer chant of this city and attempted to extort $7,000 from him, was sentenced to thirty years in the penitentlary here today.

Bledsoe entered a plea of guilty to the charge of attempted robbery. Judge Ralph W. Latshaw of the criminal court, before whom he was ar-raigned, said he regretted that he could not sentence Bledsoe to a longer term. He said that the crime was the most diabolical one he had ever heard

In answer to a question from th court, Bledsoe maintained that he had no confederates, nor did he have any intention of exploding the bomb with which he had threatened Mr. Jones, and the latter's wife and son, who came to his assistance. He merely used it, he said, to intimidate the millionaire. Mr. Jones, however, told the court that after he had captured Bled soe, the man kept crying, "Why didn't the thing go off."

CLOSING QUOTATIONS OF WORLD'S MARKETS

UNITED STATES STEEL REDUCED AT THE OPENING

New York, Feb. 20.—Twelve thou-and shares of United States Steel thrown on the market at the opening to be sold simultaneously at 47 5-8 and 47 7-8, compared with the last price of 48 3-8 yesterday. The southern group of stocks was especially firm and there was also a rise of nearly a point in Union Pacific. The way was lined for the entire distance by troops, and at the street in tersections, spectators were massed in large numbers. The guns of the fortcession crossed the frozen Neva. The streets of the city were white with snow, and along the line of march were strewn green twigs emblematic of the resurrection. CHICAGO IS TO HAVE

Chicago, Feb. 20 .- The Record-Her ald today in a news article says that the beginning of the end of South street as the greatest fruit and vegetable market in the world has been signalized by the announcement that the last deal virtually has been closed in a $10,000,000 real estate transaction which will give Chicago a large new produce market just south of the loop district.

The announcement, too, golves Chicago's greatest real estate mystery For years ago there has been persist ent buying through brokers of land in the vicinity of the site for the new market. Real estate men have puzzled over the motive without gaining the slightest clew.

Supervision of the purchase of this site was intrusted to W. B. Jansen, fourth vice president of the Santa Fe railroad. President B. F. Winchel of the Rock Island railroad, also, inter ested, is in New York and it is believ ed that details regarding the future of the project will be announced when he returned.

Although the official announcemen has not yet been given out, it is be lieved that officials of the Wabash Rock Island, Santa Fe Panhandle, and Western Indiana lines will be found to be actively interested in the success of the venture.

E. H. HARRIMAN INTERESTED.

Tuxpam, Vera Cruz, Mexico, Feb. 20 The Tuxpam-Furbero railroad, it is an nounced, has been completed into the new oil fields at Furbero.
